

3 SIMPLE STEPS TO OPEN

A CDS ACCOUNT & TRADING ACCOUNT

What is a CDS Account?

- Central Depository System account (CDS) is fully owned and operated by Bursa Malaysia Depository
- It keeps a record of the ownership and movement of shares traded on Bursa Malaysia

What is a Trading Account?

- In addition to a CDS account you also need to open a Trading account with a broker
- A Trading account is used to place your buy or sell orders in the stock market

To participate in the stock market you need to open a CDS Account and a Trading Account . Here is a quick guide to help you open both of these accounts

STEP 1.

Access Bursa Malaysia website and choose from any of the licensed stockbrokers listed to open an account

www.bursamalaysia.com

STEP 2.

Once you have identified your preferred stockbroker bring along your identity card and your bank documents to the stockbroker's office to open an account

STEP 3.

Look out for a confirmation notice from Bursa Malaysia in your mailbox

This mail will provide you with your account details, which you will use every time you trade

If you are new to the market and would like to learn the fundamentals of stock investing please visit:

www.bursamarketplace.com

Disclaimer

This information has been provided for general informational purpose only. The information contains herein does not constitute legal, financial or investment advice and neither does it make any recommendation regarding the products and services mentioned herein. Although care has been taken to ensure the accuracy of the information, Bursa Malaysia does not warrant or represent, expressly or impliedly as to the accuracy or completeness of the information herein. Bursa Malaysia does not accept any liability for any investment or trading decisions made on the basis of this information. You are advised to seek independent advice prior to investing and/or trading.